

SECTION 2: OCCUPATIONAL/SPECIALISATION/PART - QUALIFICATION/SKILLS PROGRAMME PROFILE

WATER CONSERVATION PRACTITIONER

2.1 Purpose:

The purpose of this Skills Programme is to prepare a learner to function as a Water Conservation Practitioner

A Water Conservation Practitioner monitors and evaluate the integrated water systems, identifies opportunities for water conservation initiatives and to improve the performance excellence in water use efficiency.

2.2 Tasks:

TASK	LINKS TO EXIT LEVEL OUTCOME
Water Use Efficiency and Loss Management Incentive Based Regulations	Comply to regulatory requirements
Monitor the integrated water systems of the area of responsibility	Monitor and evaluate integrated water systems
Maintain relationships within the water quality management and utilisation community	Maintain healthy relationship with stakeholders

2.3 Occupational Task Details:

2.3.2 Task 1

Water Use Efficiency and Loss Management Incentive Based Regulations

(a) Unique Product or Service:

Compliance reports relating to regulatory requirements available for decision making

(b) Responsibilities:

Environmental Management Legislation and Regulation

2.3.2 Task 2

Monitor the integrated water systems of the area of responsibility.

(a) Unique Product or Service:

Compliance and/or situational reports available

(b) Responsibilities:

Conduct on-site inspections

Conduct incident inspections

Implement enforcement actions

2.3.3 Task 3

Maintain productive relationships within the water quality management and utilisation community.

(a) Unique Product or Service:

Water use efficiency recommended

(b) Responsibilities:

Research water conservation information

Identify, analyse, and implement findings

Stakeholder analysis and engagement